

2023

Community Investment At-a-Glance

$438 Million	Charity Care Services offered free or deeply discounted to patients who are unable to pay
$1.4 Billion	Medicare Shortfalls* Unreimbursed costs to care for patients enrolled in Medicare
$849 Million	Coverage Shortfalls Unreimbursed costs to care for patients enrolled in Medicaid and other means-tested government assistance programs
$76 Million	Community Health Services Clinics and programs funded to support the health of vulnerable neighbors
$84 Million	Health Professional Education and Research Training future health professionals, expanding the scope of current practitioners and investing in research
$42 Million	Cash &amp; In-Kind Contributions The value of financial gifts, donations and service hours given to partners
$722 Million	Capital Investments* Expenditures to expand access and improve quality of care
$26 Million	Faith-Based Care* Funding to address the spiritual health of our patients and community members, both here and abroad

*Medicare shortfalls, Capital investments and Faith-based care are not classified as community benefit by the IRS.

$3.6 Billion

Total Community Investments

This report is a comprehensive summary of AdventHealth's federal filings and additional investments that improve access and the overall health of the communities we belong to in Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, Illinois, North Carolina, Texas, and Wisconsin.

Advent Health
feel whole.