

Mapping out your path to professional chaplaincy

Graduate Level Theological Education

Masters in Spiritual Care, Master of Divinity or 72-hour equivalent from a CHEA accredited seminary or university

AdventHealth University offers an online Master of Science in Spiritual Care (MSSC)

4 Units of Clinical Pastoral Education

from an ACPE<sup>2</sup> accredited CPE Center

AdventHealth

has 5 accredited centers from Chicagoland to Texas, Kansas to Central Florida

- part time in-person groups
- full time in-person groups
- synchronous online + in-hospital

Eligible for Employment

after your 4th unit of CPE

2k Hours of Professional Chaplaincy Practice

after your 4th unit of CPE

Board Certification

from APC/BCCI,<sup>3</sup> NAJC,<sup>4</sup> or NACC<sup>5</sup>

AdventHealth offers a BCC prep course to help you prepare!

* Master of Science in Spiritual Care (MSSC). <https://online.ahu.edu/programs/>
 1. Council For Higher Education Accreditation. <https://www.chea.org/search-institutions>
 2. Association for Clinical Pastoral Education. <https://profile.acpe.edu/accreditedcpedirectory>
 3. Association of Professional Chaplains. <https://www.professionalchaplains.org/>
 Board of Chaplaincy Certification Inc. <https://bcciprofessionalchaplains.org/content.asp?pl=25&contentid=25>
 4. Neshama: Association of Jewish Chaplains. <https://najc.org/>
 5. National Association of Catholic Chaplains. <https://www.nacc.org/>